

I oppose loosening of media ownership regulations.
Consolidation of media ownership has hurt local journalism and hindered access to a normal range of viewpoints on important issues. It is not in the public interest to allow further consolidation.